Ten Million Will Be Deposited in Leading Cities and Remainder Used in Purchase of Government Securities-Says His Course Is Taken After Consulting with Bankers.

Financial circles in Washington and other cities were gladdened late yester- BULLETIN BOARDS. day afternoon by the announcement from the Treasury Department that Secretary Shaw would turn loose $20,000,000 in currency, or such amount of it as may be needed, to relieve the money situation at all the principal financial centers. According to the programme formulated by the Secretary $10,000,000 of the amount will be deposited in existing depositories in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Atlanta, Louisville, Cincinnati, Memphis, St. Louis, and Chicago. The Secretary further announced that he would buy $10,000,000 worth of the bonds of 1907, which will throw into circulation that amount as soon as the exchanges can be made.

Shaw Issues Statement, In connection with the announcement of relief to the banks, Secretary Shaw made the following statement: "I have received in the last ten days an unusually large number of letters from business men representing all sections of the country complaining of the extraor603 Pa. ave. nw. dinarily high rates of interest. I have conferred during the same period, by letter or personally, with a large number of bankers scattered through the South and Middle West as well as in the East. I have to-day conferred with the committee of the American Bankers' Association now in session in the city. These gentlemen represent Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, Atlanta, Pittsburg, Indianapolis. following describes the situation fairly actual stringency in money , recognized unexampled industrial activity have created an unprecedented demand for money. The world is everywhere prosperous, and money is in great demand throughout Europe as well as in the United States. We never had such a volume of credits, and they are based on an unequaled volume of assets. The manufacturers of cotton are buying that staple by the trainload. The cotton plianter, unlike the Western farmer, demands actual cash, and he carries it home in his pocket.

The Western farmer is paid in checks, which he deposits in the bank to his credit, and therefore does not absorb actual money, as does the cotton planter. sion for alarm, but I believe there is oc-casion for relief. This I have decided to grant in the following manner: I will deposit ten million dollars in existing depositories in the cities designated below, to be secured by bonds acceptable for 1st of February.

"I will also buy ten million of the bonds of 1907 at the following prices: Registered bonds, interest at 161, and coupon bonds at 162. In the event that the bonds purchased are now held as security for purchased are now held as security for government deposits, security of the character above indicated will be accepted in Larshes, 1308 (then).
